Hi, Bethany –

Can you give me an update on the Hazelton petition in the Third Circuit (e.g., any recent developments, deadlines, filings, drafts available for review, etc.). the Region III DRA is asking about it, prompted by a request to discuss from new AA for OCSPP Alex Dunn.

Thanks! Enjoy the snow!

Mary

Mary, not sure this should be mentioned to OGC because the new deadline for filing jurisdictional motion has not yet been set. Cheryl

Welcome back all!

Regarding the Hazelton Creek PCB case, I wanted to make you aware that the Third Circuit Court of Appeals has a notice on their website which says, in relevant part: "The Court is aware that affected federal agencies will need time to recall furloughed employees and assess the current status of their cases. Accordingly, any federal government deadlines in non-criminal cases dated December 24, 2018 through and including February 1, 2019 will be reset. On February 19, 2019, the Clerk will post on the Court's website a schedule of reset deadlines. Any reset deadlines will be staggered to ensure an orderly resumption of work."

Hello all,

On December 24, the Third Circuit clerk filed a text order granting EPA's request to extend the filing date for our jurisdictional motion to January 8. With that said, the Third Circuit website currently says:

Deadlines for filings by federal government agencies in non-emergency cases will be suspended during the government shutdown. New deadlines will be established once the government shutdown has ended. To ensure an orderly resumption of work, government entities should expect that deadlines will be staggered. For example, filings due December 24, 2018 would be due seven days after the end of the shutdown; filings due December 26 would be due eight days after the end of the shutdown.

Hi all,

We have DOJ representation in the Hazelton Creek NON case. DOJ reached out to Allen Kacenjar at Patton Boggs, Hazelton Creek's counsel, and received agreement to request that the court extend the deadline for filing the jurisdictional motion to January 8. DOJ will be filing that extension request soon.
